National Library Week – April 12-17

The American Library Association's theme is "Worlds connect @ your library." The King County Law Library will be offering our Public Sleuthing on Social Networks training on April 15th. The world has gotten much smaller through the social networking phenomenon. KCLL is celebrating the week with cookies – free in the library. Come on in and see us. We will also be offering prizes to patrons who visit us at random times during the week. So be sure to visit as you may be one to claim a prize.

Blog Post of the Month – Washington Supreme Court Briefs

KCLL Klues, our Washington state research blog, keeps you apprised of interesting legal news and great research links. Sign up for the RSS feed. During this last month we highlighted the following new source for your legal research: The Washington State Supreme Court has briefs for cases filed after June 2006 on the Court website. You can search the briefs by key word, by case number, hearing date, or the date the brief was filed. We have added a link to the briefs from our web site. Go to Research Links, then Washington Links and you will find a permanent link for this resource under Courts as the last entry, Supreme Court Briefs.

Training Classes

KCLL is offering a class on Civil Procedure (WA) in 90 Minutes, from 12-1:30pm, on Monday, March 9th. Learn the basics of civil procedure in Washington state, including terminology, the court system, and the steps of the civil litigation process. We are also presenting our popular Skiptracing: Finding Business and Personal Information, from 12-1:30pm, on March 27th.

Call us at 206-296-0940 to reserve your spot!

To celebrate National Library Week, we are offering Public Sleuthing on Social Networks, from 12-1pm, on April 15th. Find out how to discover which social networks that person of interest uses. Near the end of April we will again provide a basic class on Searching Westlaw, from 12-1:30pm, April 20th.

Check out our current training calendar for all scheduled classes. We hold all training in the Seattle KCLL location at 516 3rd Ave, Suite W-621. All classes are free-of-charge. If you want us to bring any class to your location, please contact us and we will see if we can accommodate you.

Podcast News

KCLL's SideBar, the library's podcast service, has two new episodes online. In addition, the Seattle University Law Library has joined us, providing a new reference question and answer each month in a new portion of the podcast titled "At the Reference Desk." Check out "Episode 26: Legislative History Research," in which they explain how to find out more about that state law. Craig's "Reel Verdict" reviews "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington."

In our second new podcast, "Episode 27: Judge Charles Mertel Retires," Rick Stroup interviews the retiring judge. Take a listen, it is terrific! The Seattle University Law Librarians discuss how to find city ordinances.
